

KEY PERSONNEL

YI LUO

Project Manager

EDUCATION

Tulane University, New Orleans, LA - BS in Architecture
Tulane University, New Orleans, LA - MA in Architecture

Ms. Luo has a demonstrated history in completing successful projects for academic and governmental institutions. She has extensive experience with hurricane recovery and rebuilding projects in post-Katrina New Orleans, including residential, commercial, governmental, and non-profit work. In addition, Ms. Luo has worked with the University of Florida Housing Department in expansive renovations of their dormitory facilities.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

A sampling of the projects in which Ms. Luo has been substantially involved:

- Queens Central Public Library Auditorium and CD Stacks, Jamaica, NY
- Health Sciences Library Renovation, Columbia University Medical Center
- Freeman School of Business Renovation, Columbia University, New York, NY
- 501 East 75th Street Offices, NY Presbyterian Hospital, New York, NY
- Corry Village Renovations, University of Florida, Gainesville, FL
- Rawlings Plaza and Lounge, University of Florida, Gainesville, FL
- New Orleans Mission Family Center, New Orleans, LA
- 913 Magazine Street Rehabilitation, New Orleans, LA

PUBLICATION

"A Warehouse District Wonder", New Orleans Magazine, September, 2009.

"The Second Annual Renaissance Awards", New Orleans Homes and Lifestyles, Autumn/Winter 2009-2010.

AWARDS

- Award of Merit - New Orleans Mission Family Center, 2011
- Renaissance Award - 913 Magazine Street Townhouse Rehabilitation, 2009

